In the Beginning... Grace

A large, wrapped gift box is the central focus of the image. The box is wrapped in light-colored paper with a subtle, repeating pattern of stylized, swirling floral or leaf motifs in a slightly darker shade. A wide, white ribbon is wrapped around the box in a crisscross pattern, forming a large bow on top. The gift is set against a soft, warm-toned background that matches the overall aesthetic of the slide.

Genesis 1-3

2. Principles of God's Grace

- A. Grace is always far more than enough.
- B. God's expressions of grace always outweigh his requirements.
- C. Grace acknowledges the full implications of sin and yet does not condemn.
