

A gift box wrapped in gold and white patterned paper with a white ribbon bow. The background is a solid gold color.

Studies in the Grace of God

Grace in the Choosing

Grace in the Choosing

Genesis 12-22

- 1. God chose to wade in and clean up the mess we made.
 - A. The mess we made – Genesis 6:5-7
 - B. Where to begin – Genesis 12:1
- 2. God chose a sinner with no influence, no children, no homeland.
 - A. Unlikely candidate
 - B. God's point

Grace in the Choosing

Genesis 12-22

- 3. God chose to begin a relationship on trust.
 - A. An unknown God shows up
 - B. God's relationship with Abram began with a promise, not rules.
- 4. God chose the single most important aspect of His grace.
 - A. Right standing with God comes through faith in the promise of God.
 - B. Abraham had to learn that he was a recipient of an unconditional promise.

Grace in the Choosing

A gift box wrapped in gold and white patterned paper with a white ribbon bow. The box is the central focus of the image, set against a light beige background. The paper has a repeating pattern of gold swirls and floral motifs. The white ribbon is tied in a large, elegant bow on top of the box.

Genesis 12-22

Key principles of God's grace...

- 1. We are chosen by grace.
- 2. Our failures do not diminish His promises, change His plan, or delay His timing.

Grace in the Choosing

A gift box wrapped in gold and white patterned paper with a white ribbon bow. The box is the central focus of the image, set against a light beige background. The paper has a repeating pattern of gold swirls and floral motifs. The white ribbon is tied in a large, elegant bow on top of the box.

Genesis 12-22

God's grace in our lives

Our gratitude

Our humility

Our trust